

IndigiScapes

Environment

& Community Fair

Snap a photo or scan QR code for program

	Main Stage	Sustainability Garden – The Urban Bee Co
9.00am	‘Yura’ World Environment Day welcome with host Ranger Stacey	Native bees for beginners and hive exploration
9.15am	Get ‘totally wild’ with Ranger Stacey, Ben Bawdin and friends from D’Aguilar Wildlife
9.30am	Footsteps performed by Gubbi Gubbi/Ugarapul dancer Soraya Fewquandie-Scott	Mini hotels
9.45am	Meet Kieron Douglass, Ultra Runner, Conservationist & Mental Health Advocate
10.00am	Welcome to Country by Quandamooka man, Taryn Ruska-Fisher. Smoking Ceremony and dance with Taryn Ruska-Fisher, Jahlow Walker and the Yulu-Burri-Ba dancers. Official opening by Redland City Council Mayor Jos Mitchell	Honey pressing
10.30am	ABC Gardening Australia presenter Clarence Slockee from Bundjalung Nation, will share his passion and knowledge about Native Urban Landscapes in a conversation with Ranger Stacey
11.00am	Snake ecology with Australian wildlife with University of Queensland ecologist and instructor at the Australian Reptile Academy, Dr Christina Zdenek, MSc., MPhil, PhD	Power pollinators – Bats, birds and bees
11.15am	Glossy Black Cockatoo dance performed by Gubbi Gubbi/Ugarapul professional dancer Soraya Fewquandie-Scott	Urban Bee Co, Bat Conservation and Rescue
11.30am	If you have ever wondered what lerp is, what a pardalote sounds like, or how to learn bird calls, this talk is for you. Join ecologist, Land for Wildlife conservation coordinator and avid birder Deborah Metters for this fascinating presentation. Show off your best bird or wildlife call.
12pm	Native edible plants with ABC Gardening Australia presenter, native landscape designer and educator Clarence Slockee	Native bee hotel workshop
12.30pm	Soraya Fewquandie-Scott returns to the stage to perform Yirimi Gundir, finishing with an Interactive dance with the audience
12.45pm	‘Ending Plastic Pollution’ with Boomerang Alliance’s Katie Barton-Harvey	Seed bombs for pollinators
1pm	Hello Africa share their energy with audience interactive drumming and dance
1.30pm	Live music with David Hethorn	Beeswax lip balm
1.50pm	World Environment Day wrap up with Ranger Stacey
2.00pm	Event close
Throughout the day	Live broadcast with Tony Tranter and Bay FM’s ‘G’day it’s Saturday’ crew
Botanic Gardens		Playground – ‘Big Backyard’
Explore the Eco Markets with a selection of beautiful, handcrafted local and sustainable products, food and fresh produce.		Outdoor nature play
Flora and fauna face painting with Fairy Raine		Mavis’s Kitchen by @Curious Me
Weed weaving circle with Wanda Dobe		Cook damper on a stick over campfire coals
Roving Fungi maidens and Acro-bat		Messy Play with Gumtreekids
‘Let’s get it sorted’ Envirocom Waste and Recycling Warriors		ReWildYou Nature Skills
Tangalooma Eco Marines, Humpback and High-Rises, and Waterbugs with Watergum.		Threatened species scavenger hunt – Rainforest garden
Learn about our natural environment programs with Council’s Environmental Partnerships, Bushcare and Wildlife teams		Redland Organic Growers Inc. paper pot rolling.
		Theatrette
		Quiet Nature Space – Photographic exhibition capturing local flora and fauna
		Formal Garden
		Pick up a bargain at the Suitcase Rummage and Rack Sale.
		Wildlife Garden
		Bat Conservation and Rescue Qld
		Bush Tucker Garden
		D’Aguilar Wildlife
		Wildflower Garden
		Great paper reef installation with Art for Earthings