

Community Grants Program - Round 2 2016/17 - Project Support Grants

Grant ID	Organisation Name	Project Title	Project Description	Approval Amount
SUCCESSFUL APPLICATIONS
PS-172-002	Volunteering Redlands	Companion Support Program	Deliver the Companion Support Program which is team of volunteers providing personalized assistance with a friendly ear and helping hand.	$10,000.00
PS-172-005	Salford Waters Writers Group	Salford Writers' book project	With the guidance and assistance of a professional writer/editor, the Salford Writers Group aims to make a selection of the best stories and poems written by members since the group's formation in 2015 and publish this selection in book form.	$6,443.00
PS-172-007	Redlands Centre for Women	Teenage Girl's Drop-In Centre: 'The Lounge' Project	Deliver a pilot program 'The Lounge', a weekly drop-in centre for girls aged 12-17 operating weekly, facilitated by trained volunteers and Social/Youth Worker. This will include supported social connection activities (crafts, cooking etc.), guest speakers, participant-driven initiatives and informal counselling and support. The trial-pilot aims to build on and extend the personal and social development, self-esteem, body image and personal safety outcomes.	$9,970.00
PS-172-008	Redlands Touch Association	40th Anniversary History Project	Delivery of a history project that captures 40 years of growth and change in the development of the Club and its contribution to the advancement of the Cleveland Showgrounds & broader community.	$10,000.00
PS-172-018	Salt Water Murriss - Quandamooka	Bush : Dye : Story - Bush Dyes and Medicines of Quandamooka	Delivery of a collaborative project to attract the wider community and visitors to the Redlands area, and showcase the vibrancy of Quandamooka art and culture. SWMQ aims to highlight and acknowledge the importance of knowing our country and introducing other people to our stories by building a collection of saleable textiles and clothing that showcase our country through workshops.	$4,540.00
TOTAL				$40,953.00