CSG-1718-115	Redlands Rugby League Club Inc.	Girls in League	Rugby league is traditionally seen as a male dominated sport, Redland Rugby League Club (RRLC) has worked hard to change that stereotype and successfully entered three girls' teams into the 2017 SEQ competition. Unfortunately due to financial restraints the girls representing RRLC had no other option but to play in boy's uniforms (jersey, shorts and socks), which was satisfactory but not ideal given the physical differences. RRLC is hoping to gain some support from Redland City Council to assist with purchasing a female uniform. This will provide the girls with an identity of their own, one that they would be proud to wear.	1,000.00
