S22-R2-001	Surf Life Saving Queensland	Kozii Iron Challenge	Kozii Iron Challenge (KIC) is a surf lifesaving event for boys and girls from U9-17. This annual event is run in the safe waters of Raby Bay. The event attracts competitors from far north Qld to northern NSW. We have also attracted competitors from Victoria, SA and WA as it is run during the Christmas holidays. The event in calm waters enables the kids to get quality racing without the added pressure and potential dangers of surf. The event is conducted towards the end of the season and is a very good hit out for those going on to compete at the State Titles.	$5,329.00

S22-R2-003	Coochiemudlo Island Heritage Society Inc.	Coochiemudlo Island Mangrove Festival	The Coochiemudlo Island Mangrove Festival celebrates the island's mangrove species and their associated ecosystems. Coochiemudlo is fortunate to have seven out of the eight mangrove species found in Moreton Bay and a large mangrove forest on its western side. Not only do mangroves have huge ecological and economic value but they also	$2,500.00

			contribute to our sense of place and reinforce our identity as islanders. A focus on mangroves also allows us to attract environmentally aware visitors and to encourage mindful, nature based tourism. Activities will include mangrove walks, boat trips, expert speakers, Quandamooka participation, art exhibitions, musical performances and a photography competition run in conjunction with the Redlands Camera Club. The Mangrove Festival will be held the day before another island event, Flinders Day, which offers visitors who want to stay over on Coochiemudlo, two days of Island activities.
