

Regional Arts Development Fund

2023-24 Round 1 Successful Applications

Grant ID	Applicant Name	Project Title	Project Description	RADF Approved Amounts
RADF2023-24002	Angie Simms	Amity Stories	Create a historical visual and audio archive of Amity History with key local long term residents. From the captured material a short film will be produced.	$8,969.00
RADF2023-24003	Paul Andrew	Strengthening Artist Run Communities - Artist Residency	Strengthening Artist-Run Communities of Practice significantly expands the ARI Remix Community Archives Project which maps untold stories and hidden histories of Queensland artist-run culture and heritage by drawing on the foundations of the 1970s experimental art ecology.	$5,000.00
RADF2023-24008	Sing Sing Sing	Dementia Choir in the Redlands	Based on the successful program implemented in Brisbane, Sing Sing Sing , Queensland's first dementia choir will use professional musicians to deliver a choir in Redlands for people with dementia and their carers. Choir members will meet weekly to rehearse, sing together as a choir and connect with others.	$5,000.00
RADF2023-24010	Clint Bolster	Resilience Training Through Laughter	Clint Bolster is set to lead ten laughter-infused resilience training workshops in Queensland's Redlands region, targeting diverse age groups and community organisations. Participants will engage in interactive sessions, acquiring effective stress reduction techniques and advanced coping skills. Bolster's skilled	$5,000.00

			facilitation of 20 years ensures dynamic and pragmatic workshops, nurturing a positive mindset and reinforcing emotional well-being among the attendees. The program's primary objective is cultivating a resilient and empowered community, equipping individuals with the tools to navigate life's challenges with grace, empathy, and an optimistic outlook - and connecting to the heart.
RADF2023-24012	Marni Little	The Nurso Show	A hilarious and heartfelt comedy that explores the origin story of The Nurso - a real garden centre on Old Cleveland Road. This 9 x 8 minute web series follows the Benham Family as they weather the adversities of turning a "run-down, code-violation zombie hell-scape"* into a thriving nursery and community cornerstone. All the while tackling first-time home schooling, living on-site, dodging an unhinged caretaker, evading the evil tactics of a mobster nursery competitor, and dealing with customers that can't seem to keep their plants alive. Although heightened, the stories shared are very close to the real events. *A published review	$10,000.00
	TOTAL AMOUNT APPROVED			$33,969.00