

The Royal Australian Navy Band Queensland is based at HMAS Moreton in Bulimba, Brisbane, Queensland. The band consists of 25 part-time Musicians and two full-time Musicians under the direction of Bandmaster Chief Petty Officer Musician Simon Potter.

The Royal Australian Navy Band Queensland provide ceremonial support to HMAS Moreton and to Navy throughout the Sunshine state. Ceremonial support often takes the form of a military marching band but can also take the form of vocal and bugle support to anthem/Last Post ceremonies, as well as drum corps support. HMA ship visits to Brisbane, such as that of HMAS Brisbane, see the band supporting Freedom of Entry parades, Ceremonial Sunsets, official functions and ship open days.

The Reserve Musicians that form the Royal Australian Navy Band Queensland come from a diverse range of full-time occupations including scientists, public servants, medical professionals, teachers, full time students and professional musicians.

To keep up to date with Royal Australian Navy Band Queensland, like and follow our RAN Band Facebook page:

<https://www.facebook.com/RoyalAustralianNavyBand>